From the tranquil farmland waters of Minnesota to the treacherous wilderness rapids of Manitoba, four young men in two old canoes experience an adventure that every kid talks about, but few take. With leaky tents, little experience, and no TV cameras or big-time sponsors, the lads set out in 1979 to paddle 1,400 miles north to Hudson Bay. Why? Why not! Driven by a youthful sense of adventure, they took the chance of a lifetime just to see what lay around the next turn. Sit in their canoe as they glide through smooth waters and survive rushing rivers. Experience with them the desolation of true wilderness and go on humorous escapades with local characters. With graceful storytelling, Dennis Weidemann weaves this richly diverse tale of near disasters, splendid sunsets, bootleggers, Mounties, polar bears, and the indomitable spirit of youth. Share the dream that still lives, and that will surely inspire others.

Charlotte Bernstein:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this This Water Goes North can make you really feel more interested to read.
