What happens in Vegas shouldn't stay in Vegas.

Destination: Desire, Book 1

It's spring break, and a group of teachers from Half Moon Bay Middle School are planning to cut loose. History teacher Meg Phillips hadn't planned on being one of them—Vegas isn't really a town for a bookworm—but somehow she let her friend Anne talk her into it.

Though honestly, she'd rather indulge in some poolside reading than co-star in an R-rated edition of Teachers Gone Wild.

It took some major arm twisting for Finn Walsh to convince his fellow gym teacher, Anne, to do whatever it took to get Meg to Vegas. For over a year he's been looking for the chance to get to know her outside of work. He's drawn to her quiet beauty and intelligence—and the hint of fire beneath her understated exterior.

When he finally gets the opportunity to peel away those layers, the result is far more explosive than he ever fantasized. Now to convince her that the week isn't a wildly out-of-character mistake, but the start of something amazing...

Warning: Two good teachers doing very naughty things to each other while on vacation in Sin City. Hey, everyone deserves a chance to cut loose, right?
