The last thing Audra Darron wants is another disastrous relationship. When the persuasive Barrett Camden challenges her to a date, she accepts his challenge. It doesn't take her long to learn under all that macho exterior is a kind man with a tender side. A mystery man full of secrets, something she detests. Does she dare trust him when he asks her to without knowing his past and risk her heart?

Barrett Camden is a man with many names. It's been seven years since he went into hiding. When he sees the gutsy little beauty wipe out her competitors in a demolition derby, he's determined to get to know the feisty woman. The only problem is, she's not interested. Not the least bit discouraged, he pursues her, but soon discovers his past may very well keep him from catching her.
