Jordi Roberts is a soldier but he isn't anyone's idea of a hero

He drinks, sees daytime nightmares, and tends to crack under pressure. Even though his brother is the American Conference president, Jordi doesn't trust the government, seeing conspiracies around every corner.

In an era of continual wars, giant motherships prowl the sky, and the people been forced deep into underground cities. When Jordi's flight status as a fighter pilot is revoked by his brother, he loses his way to escape living in a world of dark tunnels.

The Conference is attacked and crippled by its closest ally, and only Jordi knows that the betrayal runs deeper than it appears. His previous conspiracy theories only scratched the surface, and now his investigations lead him to the heart of the Conference leadership and to a horrifying truth worse than anything he could have imagined.

Can the cycle be ended, or is World War 98 inevitable? A broken world desperately needs a hero, instead it gets Jordi.
