Amber Layne is a Las Vegas stripper with a budding career in journalism. She needs a change from her disastrous home life, and a story on a famous video star brings her face-to-face with the world of Legal Prostitution in Nevada (LPIN). The industry is nothing like she expects, and circumstances lead her to dig deeper into the story - and into herself. Set in the late 1990s, Broken explores the world of legal sex work at the turn of the millennium. Based on hundreds of hours of interviews with legal sex workers in Nevada, Broken embraces the lives, passions, and desires of the women and men involved in legal adult industries without judgement and without sugar-coating.
