This book guides ones financial life in purposeful, simple language. Everyone has debt and most likely because they do not understand finances. The purpose is to get you thinking about you! Our fast paced world has us believing that everyone is out to help us but they are not. Learn to recognize your financial situation for what it is and be determined to keep your money in your pocket! This book will help you think on your own, understand debt and handle your finances rationally. A book from experience was not available to help me so I wrote one for you. About the Author I am a Pittsburgh native who currently resides in Butler County, PA with my beautiful wife Lori. I have always been dedicated to helping others. I was unemployed and broke. After getting married and no job or future the tide had turned. This is what has inspired me to write this book. I have volunteered at the YMCA for ten years, then a little league coach and a board member. I was a volunteer firefighter, Captain, driving instructor and board member over a five-year period. I have worked for county government, private and commercial businesses and I have obtained sharp management skills, experience and training over 12 years with a multi-million dollar healthcare company. (2010, paperback, 86 pages)
